

Enabling Children through Arts & Clay

This is a hands on training day, where you will explore Art materials and Clay throughout the day, looking at various ways that you can use it within your practice.

Children and young people often find talking verbally about their feelings difficult, so lets be creative together! If you work with adults, you can adapt activities to use with adults too.

You will leave with lots of new creative ideas and techniques

Aims of the training includes:

- » Participants to leave with lots of new creative ideas/techniques
- » Participants to feel confident in how to help the children feel grounded
- » To increase knowledge of creative ways to communicate with children and young people
- » Participants to experience the activities

All materials will be provided:
creations can be taken away.

Facilitated by an experienced
Child Therapist/Clinical Social Worker.

Suitable for: foster carers, adopters, parents, residential staff, special guardians, teachers, teaching assistants, social workers, therapists and supervising social workers.
